

Glamorous Sky

Hyde

I could have seen the other side
Taking a step into the sky
Ah, I'm always late

I could have done the same routine
Showing the old and golden scene
I'm lying again
To make them go
Wearing again my rocking shoes
Over the puddles made of tears
Flash back
I know you're clever
I remember

I know we could cross over rainbows
I wish that we could aim the sun again
I know we could dream for tomorrow
To share the long forgotten Glamorous days

I could have done a lot for you
Nothing was left for me to do
Ah, I'm always late
I let you go
You always said it's Rock'n'Roll
Life is a battle, fight and grow
Flash back
I loved your flavor
I remember

I know we could shine like the starlight
I wish that we could aim the sky again
I know we could dream for tomorrow
To share the long forgotten Glamorous days

I won't be sleeping

Sunday, Monday,
Yet another Tuesday
Wednesday, Thursday, you're still away
Friday, Saturday, I'll be lonely everyday
And I'm crying high up to the moon
And I somehow hope to hear you cry

I know I could fight all the troubles
If only I could stay there on your side
I know I should dream on my own now
To chase the long forgotten Glorious days

I know we could cross over rainbows
I wish that we could aim the sun again
I know we could dream for tomorrow
To share the long forgotten Glamorous days

Glamorous sky...
