

Sober Dreams

Hydria

Only in my dreams
Show me the whisper of your sadness
Show me the dark side of your soul
After all this would it be still possible
To hold you tonight?

Blind for your light so insane...
I can't understand your rules

Lady of my sober dreams
Of the wind that blows
And suffocate my thoughts
Come with me tonight

I wander in my silent sleep
While my time
Is running away
I'll wait for the sunrise of a new day

Tired of this journey
To a drunk world of pride
Of diving in a mystery
So distant from reality
In my mournful desires

Blind for your light so insane...
I can't understand your rules

Lady of my sober dreams
Of the wind that blows
And suffocate my thoughts
Come with me tonight

I wander in my silent sleep
While my time
Is running away
I'll wait for the sunrise of a new day

Wherever i go
Your face is haunting me
And i can hear your voice
Whispering softly in my ears...
