

The Ghost Raven And The Eagle

Hydria

I'll be the one
Who'll guide you through your way
In the betrayal night
Of your dreams I'll be flying

Please don't be afraid
I'll show you no more pain

In the immensity of the Sky
I look through the eyes of an eagle
It bring the hope I once forgot
The undying strength of the wisdom

Onwar to the Sun
Where my soul will melt away
And my body will burn
In the wings of illusion

There's a place
Where i'll be safe in this world
I need to find the night course
And free my soul of this nightmare

In the immensity of the Sky
I look through the eyes of an eagle
It bring the hope I once forgot
The undying strength of the wisdom

Blood and destruction
I don't want to see
The pain in the eyes of this child
That lives in my dreams

In the immensity of the Sky
I look through the eyes of an eagle
It bring the hope I once forgot
The undying strength of the wisdom
