

Never Coming Back

Hypnogaja

There's something in your eye
You think you're better
Like you know more than I
But you're not that clever

There is no compromise
You can't argue forever
No hiding in your lies
It's now or never

You had your chance
You didn't last
You're gone now
And you're never coming back again
Time doesn't lie
You can't deny
You're over
And you're never coming back again

I should feel sorry for you
You got off easy
You kept on wanting more
You got too greedy

Well it's gotten to the point
Where the truth can't save us
We have no choice
And when the lies, they crack
The sky turns black and we'll forever
Never, ever be coming back
