

Quiet

Hypnogaja

I want to slip into the quiet
And let the whole world pass me by

I need a break from all of existence
So I can finally rest my eyes

I'd like to slip into the quiet (just to try it)
And watch the whole world pass me by

If I should take from my own existence
If I should stop it all just for an instant
Will I finally rest inside?
Is peace so hard to find?

Don't let me slip into the quiet
Don't let the whole world pass me by
