Lovesong

I wanna wanna be good I wanna wanna be cool I wanna lie by your side I wanna hold you my heart I wanna touch your white skin give me the hand, I bought you rings I do not mind if you are cold as ice for you I am splitting in two

I had to go very deep cause I want to join you in sleep you are my silent bride I want you to feel my inside when I am kissing you together we are forever against we are making love in passion we are drowned

I am sorry, I hurt you you have been always the best but you pissed me off, don't you? I miss you anyway I couldn't keep my anger I realize that's bad my shotgun was loaded so you are seven weeks dead you are seven weeks dead you are dead dead Hypnos
