

Regicide

Hypnos

Coronation of impious God
Supremacy, open up the stairs
A few serpents planning regicide but the lion never succumb to the rats

Resentment against playing this chess Easy downlook from extensive top Imperial punishment is merciless short-time effect of exciting dope

When the dogs keep barking at the moon it's orbit will never changes to whip the dogs is not worthy of the ruler disloyalty remains in the mind

Don't forget to make your disguise up who wants to show up as dishonoured but you are known as are your plans for regicide epicene life in a outmoded hole

This time the sun turns its back on you this time and everytime charnel-house is casting vote for massacre die-the one who's walking on thin ice

Next day starts with sunrise and blood a few another serpents have died, planning regicide!!!
