

Sacrilegious

Hypnos

We are modern Antichrists, the bible we deny we do not waste the time in the church there is thousand better ways how to spend a life we leave that world behind we cease praying to god it brings no difference anyway we do not need this world where everything is a sin

Save yourself, refuse this madness forget sains, they are fabricated we are living without JESUS cause we are all sacrilegious

Tell me chosen one if this is fun staring at a cross from your knees without any proof why to worship king of the wood listen to your mouth your brain has to be fucked you are still repeating holy rules they are fooling you, you are the statue of 20th century of fools

They are stupid, they are smart easily make you blind you lie to yourself, cannot you see? the saints your friends they have never been
