

Reincarnation

Hypocrisy

You feel the warning from behind
The truth is buried in a wall of time
Threw the sorrows of your life
You ain't getting ahead from this Christ
I feel evil approaching me
The voices calling me on
Silence...
The only sound is the knife threw the air
Hell...
Is were I'll be when I'm threw with you.
I'll give more bodies to get ahead.
Dark crimson they're close again
Wide open cutting wounds
You feel the power of dark?
I feel evil approaching me
The voices calling me on Paradise...
The only sound is the life through the air
Hell... is where I'll be when I'm through with you
Silence...
The only sound is the knife through the air
Hell...
Is were I'll be when I'm threw with you.
