I Against I

Accused of living in a dreamworld Told me that it's my way out But what the @#$* should I wake up to? To your world? I'd rather not! Propagate a lot of theories Won't reflect the likes of me Lack the will to be a weasel Not lured into your security Yeah, I li ve in a dream but who put me to sleep You think you're awake, you're just counting the .. Now move to the side cause your world's in my way There's no chance that you'll wake me up I'll never..
.... Rising up by putting down All is done just to fit in But do you know What to fit into? I can' t stand the endless beating The pressure and the double-talk I won't meet your sorry measures T alk all you want but I'll stand tall I'll never live up to your standard Of giving in just to get by And you can save your hollow phrases Just say goodbye I'm gone Exempt, from all your sorry m easures I'm gone Not touched, by your cold hands I'm gone Immune, to all the endless beating The re's no way that you will drag me in I'll never live on your flat earth No never
