

Pretty People Never Lie, Vampires Never Really Die

I Am Ghost

Look how you've grown
It's etched in skin and bone
Dressed in make-up and bleached out in the roses
That's hollow and tasteless
Where the spirit make love
And pretty corpses hold their brides

Do you know I'd never hurt you?
No...

Taste "it" and we'll never be alone
I'll take the first bite
Yeah, I am Ghost
Say goodnight to you
My darling, my darling.

Few words can kill me
They inspire in your hands

The sun outside
The glass-shaped walls
Burn the flesh off paper dolls
My lips and tongue, they bleed...
We won't fall, we'll be together
Just the two of us

That's hollow and breathless
It kills me slowly, lost and lonely

Do you know I'd never hurt you
No, no... no...

Taste "it" and we'll never be alone
I'll take the first bite
Yeah, I am Ghost
Say goodnight to you
My darling, my darling.

I'm so sorry.
So sorry.
So...take this rose
Take this rose

Break this bottle of aged pills
Taste the blue ones
We'll sleep through December.
Awake to the birth of an Angel (tonight)
She has your eyes (your eyes)
I will hide them, don't worry
Soon she will grow
I can't believe this is all my fault
Yeah, soon she will grow.
Unbury me and put me back together again.

Taste it
Taste it

Sad rose for life because I'm already dead

Taste "it" and we'll never be alone
I'll take the first bite
Yeah, I am Ghost
Say goodnight to you
My darling, my darling

Taste "it", and we'll never be alone
I'll take the first bite
Yeah, I am Ghost.
Say goodnight to you
My darling
My darling
