You stand like a rock, on top of the mountain
Run like a river, fall like a fountain
The grass still is growing, the wind is still blowing, about yo

Reels like a strain, drinks like a scholar Drown in this town, you can feel for one dollar Since when were you bitten, whence were you smitten, cuckoo

Cuckoo

Cuckoo

Cuckoo

Cuckoo

Looks like a date, but seems like your brother Seems like your father, your sister, your mother Threw out in chains, wildhood and childhood, cuckoo

Drinks like a rogue, looks like no other Looks like a dream, one you'll discover Seems like it's bitten, whence were you smitten, cuckoo

Cuckoo

Cuckoo

Cuckoo

Cuckoo

Looks like a saint, drinks like a scholar Dreams in this town you can buy for one dollar Whence were you smitten, where were you bitten, cuckoo

Wrench like a chain(?), looks like no other Your father, your mother, your sister, your brother Have all since long gone, all since long gone, cuckoo

Cuckoo

Cuckoo

Cuckoo

Cuckoo

Stand like a rock You stand like a rock Cuckoo Cuckoo