I Fight Dragons

Tonight you look like a dream
Then again you always do to me
After everything we've been throw
I still just love to look at you

I can't promise you that won't be pain
I can't promise to remain the same
But you're scared I'll be there, tonight and always

One day we'll travel the glob
Adventure calls us and we'll go
Even if w don't that's ok
Long as I'm with me that's where I'll stay

I can't promise you that won't be pain
I can't promise to remain the same
But you're scared I'll be there, tonight and always

I can't promise you that won't be pain
I can't promise to remain the same
But you're scared I'll be there, tonight and always
When you're scared I'll be there, tonight and always
