

The Big Everything

I Hate Kate

Oh silence silence my friend
Won't you ever listen?
As I wait for you to grow
Oh violence violence is this
It's a sign I can not miss
As I wait for you to know

Oh God it feels like
I'm naked on chemicals in the cold
Every time I wanna look right into your eyes
This is what I'm told

That it's time to make a move and
It's time to break on through
Echoing inside me
Is this all that we can do

It's time to turn the page
And it's time to crush the mold
I know I can't wait till tomorrow
What if there's no tomorrow

Underwater she moves under black lights turn blue
As I wait for you to show
Who's the enemy who's the lie?
Conversations crucify
As I wait for you to grow

Oh God it feels like
I'm naked on chemicals in the cold
Every time I wanna look right into your eyes
This is what I'm told

That it's time to make a move and
It's time to break on through
Echoing inside me
Is this all that we can do

It's time to turn the page
And it's time to crush the mold
I know I can't wait till tomorrow

It's time to make a move and
It's time to break on through
Echoing inside me
Can't wait till tomorrow

And it's time to make a move and
It's time to break on through
Echoing inside me
Is this all that we can do

It's time to turn the page
And it's time to crush the mold
I know I can't wait till tomorrow

And it's time to make a move and

It's time to break on through
Echoing inside me

It's time to turn the page
And it's time to crush the mold

Time to make a move and
Echoing inside me

It's time to turn the page
And it's time to crush the mold
I know I can't wait till tomorrow
No tomorrow
