

Nightmares

I Killed the Prom Queen

With wolves at your door
Would you then give a thought to the lives you have slaughtered
Marched across killing floors
Like they aren't somebody's son or daughter

How can we be so heartless
They're beaten bloody and lifeless
We'll be the voice for the voiceless
And give hope to the helpless (2x)

Your body is a graveyard
And you'd soon rather forget
About the innocent
They weren't ready to be buried yet

But this is the world we're living in Murder is the game, who's cashing in

We'll be the voice for the voiceless
And give hope to the helpless

How can we be so heartless
They're beaten bloody and lifeless
We'll be the voice for the voiceless
And give hope to the helpless

How can you be so fucking heartless (2x)
