

Portraits,dreams And Memories

I Killed the Prom Queen

I won't forget you
You won't forget me
I will choose to forget you

One again my body will lay cold
Once again your body will lay cold
With no breath left you have died there
With no breath left you have died now

With no breath left your body will lay cold
With no breath left you have died slowly
When you lied there, when you died there

Beneath my skin, through my veins
Look at me as I am screaming out to no-one
Look at me as I die again

Tears will drown me, drip down your face
Forgiveness denied Means you have to
Means I have to choke myself

These are my portraits
These are my dreams
These are my memories
Memories will fade (away with you)

YOU WON'T FORGET ME, YOU WILL DIE
