

New Demons

I See Stars

I'm not your true love,
Or your knight in shining armor!
All of these games you play,
And all this bullshit drama!
I'll be free to be me and find my path in life!

You think I'll die alone? Well I'm not alone tonight!

Our love was a waste,
This much is true.
I pray I'd forget you!

Yeah!
Fuck you!

You're no better than anyone,
You want respect?
You have to earn it!
Your jealousy won't cover on me!
Why are you so heartless?

Open up your eyes and you'll see,
That I'm not perfect,
That's what I'm trying to be.

Open up your eyes and you'll see,
That I'm not perfect,
That's what I'm trying to be,
'Cause I know you're worth it.
These new demons are changing me inside,
Changing me inside.

Knock me down to pick yourself back up,
Because you hit the depths.
In your heart you're still nothing;
Always sinking down!

I bet you put yourself through Hell.
You did this to yourself.
I can't believe I wish you well.
I wished you well!

Knock me down to pick yourself back up,
Because you hit the depths.
In your heart you're still nothing;
Always sinking down!

Open up your eyes and you'll see,
That I'm not perfect,
That's what I'm trying to be,
'Cause I know you're worth it.
These new demons are changing me inside,
Changing me inside.

These new demons,
They're eating me alive.
Pushing and pulling,

The heart out from inside.

If I can't have you,
Then nobody else can,
No!

Just the thought of you,
Walking hand in hand,
With somebody else,
Reinventing things we do,
But they'll never match
To the love thrown down the well

If I can't have you,
Then nobody else can...
