

Pop Rock And Roll

I See Stars

I gave you time because I thought you had to think it out
Now your head is all filled up with doubt
Surely there would be assurance by now
I am comfortable with the unpredictable
In this place, I sense contagious
And I see a face
I can't contain this
I can't contain this, no

Yeah I'm just a kid
But I can be tall
I can be anything at all
I can be yours
You can be mine
Just for tonight I swear that it will feel right

I look at her picture (I look at her picture)
Remembering other times in life
And I know that no one is listening
But, I have something I want to say
Tonight I met the one that hoped for me
Got closer, she's over
And tonight I met the one that hoped for me

I close my eyes
I see her in my mind now
Looking through the ups and downs
Searching for a turn around
Surely there would be assurance by now

Yeah I'm just a kid
But I can be tall
I can be anything at all
I can be yours
You can be mine
Just for tonight I swear that it will feel right

Remembering other times in life
And I know that no one is listening
But, (I know that no one's listening)

Tonight I met the one that hoped for me
Got closer, she's over
Tonight I met the one that hoped for me

We gaze upon the glowing sky
Wishing this last kiss wasn't our last goodbye
I pushed myself to follow the truth
That my last night could not be with you

And I'll sing to you
'Til it's over
Now it's over
And I'll to you
Now it's over

'But I'll sing for you'
Forever
And ever!

[Fade out]
