

Drive With Me

I Set My Friends on Fire

She left us but now the roads opened two new billboards
(watch the windows pass the old ones by)
She left us switching lanes without checking the rearview
(taking chances we'd never die)

She left us but now the roads opened two new billboards
(watch the windows pass the old ones by)
She left us switching lanes without checking the rearview
(taking chances we'd never die)

Come drive with me we are going to the south
you can sit passenger but bitch don't run your mouth