

Identity:Crisis

I the Breather

You better listen up
And you better not get it wrong
I've got a story to tell about a man damned for hell
One face, two lives
Struggling to fight the beast inside
I used to win but lately all I've been is Mr. Hyde

You wanted a story?
Hahaha, well you got one...

No doctor, no medicine
Not the devil I hate, I hear he loves me
No pastor, no saving
Not the God I love, they say He hates me
Get inside my head, nothing but arguments

They say that "I'm a good guy, with a promising life"
I'm such a dark soul, destroying everything I love
I've got some issues, I've got a short fuse
I've learned to love being used, I am my own downfall
My own downfall

No doctor, no medicine
Not the devil I hate, I hear he loves me
No pastor, no saving
Not the God I love, they say He hates me
Nothing will put this curse to an end
I've tried to kill, I've tried to kill
I've tried to kill these voices inside my head
Put this curse to an end, put this curse to an end

You wanted a disaster
You think I'm on the verge, I'm very clever

I am so sorry but this world can't save me
I am my own downfall
My own downfall!
