

They keep asking where I've gone
And if I'll ever come back home
Give it up!

They say, "He wandered down a broken road
Lost the heart that he once knew
Thought she was the angel to his hope"
She was the devil that stole my soul
I've given up

Please forgive me, for I am not who I used to be (used to be)
Please forgive me, death was my heart's destiny
Destiny!

(If all you see, if all you see)
If all you see is the bad in me then please walk away, walk away
If all you see is the broken man in me then please stay and help me

She looked like angel, was a devil at heart
Left me broken, beaten, had me fooled from the start

Please forgive me, for I am not who I used to be (used to be)
Please forgive me, death was my heart's destiny
Destiny!

I keep telling myself that I'll find a home
This whole world isn't cold, I won't die alone
I try and try, but these demons on the inside
They know the dirty truth and so do I

If all you see is the bad in me then please walk away, walk away
If all you see is the broken man in me then please stay and help me
I'm broken, beaten, left to die on the inside
Please forgive me!