

Changes

lamsu!

Yea HBK, yea you know how we play
Uh
It sound like one
Yea
Nah
Hah

I'm just ridin through my city, windows ain't tinted
Livin I'm finna die at any minute
Push it to the limit, grindin everyday
Life gave me lemons, I made lemonade
Used tears in the bucket that I cried out
Want it so bad, cried til my eyes dry up
You won't ever ever make the team until you try out
Now with that said, let me show you what my mind's bout
I'm about always putting on, that's my only intention
When ya'll kept it real, I stayed relentless
You gotta play yo cards whatever life deals you
Hold on to your bread and make it green, no middle view
Me and my gang but it's not high route
Put my whole soul in everything I do
Like voodoo, who knew
I will be the greatest?
Sick, highly medicated

Life changes
Yea, friends become strangers
I swear life changes
Uh, the world puts me through changes
I feel myself changing
I feel ya'll changing
I swear life changes
I swear life changes
Life changes

Stay high so my eyes low
Duckin 5-0, tryna take the high road
While people steadily tryna bring me under
It really makes me wonder where does all this hatin come for?
Being that, not too many make it where I come from I'm being that individual that has done something
I see the fact through the lies, I see the snakes in the skies
I see that hate in they eyes, my playas makin them blind
I'm the last of the mohicans, listen when my seekin
Speak the realities of life
Whatever's decent, I'm regecent
My recent intention has these niggas playin defense
Instead of joining the movement they tryna make up a reason
Uh, drag us through the mud, we still come out clean
'Cause the real gon stand out like a turned on screen
Middle finger to everybody that turned on me
We in the building and homie we fo sure won't leave Life!

Life changes
Yea, friends become strangers
I swear life changes

Uh, the world puts me through changes
I feel myself changing
I feel ya'll changing
I swear life changes
I swear life changes
Life changes
