

Shine razor eyes before the walls come down
Wilder than lions, louder than sound
The birds and the bees are getting older now
There's a cold breeze blowing over my soul

Shine razor eyes in delight
Shine razor eyes before you die
Shine razor eyes in this light
There's a cold breeze blowing over my soul

Shine razor eyes before the walls come down
Wilder than lions, louder than sound
The birds and the bees are getting older now
There's a cold breeze blowing over my soul

Shine razor eyes in delight
Shine razor eyes before you die
Shine razor eyes in this light
There's a cold breeze blowing over my soul

I'm tired of this human duet
No civilizing hides
Our animal impulses [2x]
