IAMX

I may walk the streets
But you are alive inside me
I've been holding on so long
Invader

Miracles, yes, I've seen
You are the strong, I am the weak
It's raining and it's so cold
Invader

Commanded
My name is the war on the 80 percent
By the voices
My name is the void, collecting her rent

Commanded
My name is Fellini, my name is Chopin
By Voices
I will blow away with the dust
I know who I am

I may walk the streets
In bliss-tainted misery
With the dope in you and the dagger in me
Invader

So watch, we self-implode
We car-crash on an empty road
Bound by our lust and our vulgar woes
We mock, we mirror

My name is the war on the 80 percent

My name is the void, collecting her rent
