

Kingdom of Welcome Addiction

IAMX

Do you remember your coming down,
Forced to take sides?
Your taunted charm and your broken smile,
Touched me unexpectedly.

So long,
So long you've waited in line.
Desire is a gift in life.
So long,
So long you've left and arrived,
It's time for you to stay a while.

If you chose life,
You know what the fear is like, if
You welcome addiction,
This is your kingdom.

Your fight for power,
For memories, answers and signs,
Will bring you through the dark to light,
Clear and redefined.

Too long,
Too long I waste for these,
Emotionally sucking life,
Too long,
Too long, you waste, and right,
It's time for you to recognise.

If you chose life,
You know what the fear is like, if
You welcome addiction,
This is your kingdom.

If you chose life,
You know what the fear is like, if
You welcome addiction,
This is your kingdom.
