

The Adrenalin Room

IAMX

The virgin anger and the will to power
The secret fire of the human form
Burning water vitriol
Mercury rising above us all

The dissolving and binding
Wearing the crow in the fold
My coarse heart swallows eve thing up
Like a black hole

In the adrenaline room
At the back of my head
There's a locked up box
And people kissing everywhere [2x]

The virgin anger and the will to power
The secret fire of the human form

In the adrenaline room
At the back of my head
There's a locked up box
And people kissing everywhere [2x]
