

You Can Be Happy

IAMX

You walked into the world
As a super human boy and girl (ooh)
In the blinking of your eyes
I was born and sold
By your manifesto

It's a cruel world for small things
But with lies and luxuries
In the in-between
You can be happy

You put me in a cage
In the daily maze of flesh and rage (ooh)
That I will follow every truth
I won't let you go
I want every tomorrow

It's a cruel world for small things
But with lies and luxuries
In the in-between
You can be happy

And now I am afraid
You will blossom soon
And grow and change
There is so much I can't take
But I will understand
I will open my hand

You can be happy
You can be happy
You can be happy
You can be happy (it's a cruel world for small things...)
You can be happy (... but with the lies and luxuries...)
You can be happy (... in the in-between...)
You can be happy (... you can be happy...)

You can be happy (ooh)
You can be happy (ooh)
You can be happy (ooh)

There's an open window
And I can go through
To the life of others
There's nothing I can't do

There's an open window
And I can go through
To the life of others
There's nothing I can't do (fight)

There's an open window (fight)
And I can go through (fight)
To the life of others (fight)
There's nothing I can't do (fight)

There's an open window (fight/you can be happy)

And I can go through (fight/you can be happy)
To the life of others (fight/you can be happy)
There's nothing I can't do (fight/you can be happy)

Fight/you can be happy
Fight/you can be happy
Fight/you can be happy
Fight/you can be happy

You can be happy (ooh)
