If You Believe Me

I could believe in you The way you left me hot and helpless I could believe in you The way your kisses left me hot and helpless I could believe in you I want you If you believe me I'll stay with you But if you deceive me I'll kill you I feel so lonely Since you've gone I feel so lonely I want you back If you believe me I'll never let you go If you believe me I'll never let you go But if you deceive me I'll let you go
