

State Of Mind

Ian Van Dahl

Believe me
When life seems to fade in black and white
It's never too late to change your mind

Live to fight another day
A clear blue sky is moving your way

Believe me Dark clouds, they come and they go
Live for today, forget tomorrow

Don't waste your breath on broken dreams
Time to shake the dust from your feet

Leave your worries for tomorrow
Ain't nothing but a state of mind
Tell yourself that you can do it
It's not too late
Time to set your dreams in motion
Ain't nothing but a state of mind
Tell yourself that you can do it
It's not too late
