Walking Away

Ian Van Dahl

Another sleepless night I open up my eyes I found the reason wh  $\ensuremath{\mathtt{Y}}$

I feel the time has come To make it on my own I'm heading for t he sun

I'm walking away To find a brighter day I'm walking away No rea son left to stay

I'm walking away I still feel safe and sound But it's time to break new ground A nd turn my life around

I've wasted too much time On things I could not find I leave th is place behind

I'm walking away
