

Parasite

Iced Earth

It rises from dormant slumber
Drains life from the host in hunger
Seeding it's evil
Manipulation

Disguise, masking true intention
Truth lies in it's own reflection
Burrowing deeper
Spreading infection

It grows, swelling in the darkness
Feeding on the host and weakness
Feeling exploited
Our path in turmoil

In the dark it drains our energy
Devouring for its own need
Vigilance will fight the parasite
Prevent it's roots from settling
Our minds and bodies strengthening
Flush the poison from existence

Inside
It burrows
Divides
It tears us

No more
Destruction
Shifting
New victim

Defeat, cast away corruption
Embrace with a new beginning
These wounds are healing
This strain has lifted

In the dark it drains our energy
Devouring for its own need
Vigilance will fight the parasite
Prevent it's roots from settling
Our minds and bodies strengthening
Flush the poison from existence
