

Just sit back and relax
Well, come take a little ride
This a limousine, baby
What you see is what you get

Well, the red lights are flashing
They're crashing the car
It's a Cadillac, baby
Cadillac, baby

Turn on the television set
Watch yourself on the network news
They've got the telephone and dial
You can talk to anyone you want to

Well, we know where we're going
We're going nowhere
It's a Cadillac, baby
And the red lights are flashing
When crashing the car
It's a Cadillac, baby
Cadillac, baby

Uh-huh, it's bullet proof protected
Uh-huh, luxury appointed
Uh-huh, everything that you expected
Uh-huh, how did we get elected?

We're just rolling down the freeway
Into the twenty-first century
But there's nobody driving
Yeah, there's no one behind the wheel

And there's no way to stop it
We're crashing the car
It's a Cadillac, baby

Uh-huh, how did we get elected?
Uh-huh, uh-huh, uh-huh, uh-huh
Cadillac, baby
Cadillac, baby

And there's nobody driving
The way out of here
It's a Cadillac, baby
The red lights are flashing
They're crashing the car
It's a Cadillac, baby

Cadillac, baby
Cadillac, baby
Cadillac, baby
Cadillac, baby
Cadillac, baby
Cadillac, baby
Cadillac, baby
