Cross The Border

Icehouse

Oh oh.....So dangerous, like freedom she fades away The vision that chains the heart, foundations that fall apart Well, I know this place (east, west, points to the nation) (North, south, cut the connection)

I said, stealer, steal her, we cross the border Steal love, still life, we cross the border

And time builds the wall, the wall that is standing still And she breaks the spell, the spell that may hold us all You build stone by stone, the line that will last for so long But for those who dare, her secret is safe with no one Well, I know this place (east, west, points to the nation) (north, south, cut the connection)

I said, stealer, steal her, we cross the border Steal love, still life, we cross the border, oh oh whoa oh

Oh oh oh

I said, stealer, steal her, we cross the border, mmm Steal love, still life, we cross the border, oh oh whoa oh

Chk-a-chk-a....Chk-a-chka....(East, west, points to the nation) (North, south, lines of persuasion break) (East, west, points to the nation, north, south, cut the connec tion)

I said, stealer, steal her, we cross the border, mmm Steal love, still life, we cross the border, oh oh whoa oh Stealer, steal her (East, west, points to the nation) We cross the border, mmm (North, south, lines of persuasion bre ak) Steal love, still life (East, west, points to the nation) We cross the border (North, south, cut the connection break) Stealer, steal her (East, west, points to the nation) We cross the border, o yea (North, south, lines of persuasion b reak) Steal love, still life (East, west, points to the nation) We cross the border (North, south, cut the connection break) Steal love, still life (East, west, points to the nation) We cross the border (North, south, cut the connection break) Stealer, steal her (East, west, points to the nation) We cross the border (North, south, cut the connection break)
