

Too Late Now

Icehouse

Just give me the sign
And I'll be walking out that door
Don't want to remember this
The way it was before
As the rain falls on the ocean
And the desert feels the sign
We let it die here
Let it slip right through our hands

It's too late now
Too late to love, too late to cry
So don't look back
Another place, another time
Too late now
To start again, to wonder why
Too late now

Just give me the word
Though it may be so hard to sing
Just give me a reason
Why it had to end this way
Steady holding onto nothing
Like a child, yeah, like a fool
Though you've God, I won't forget
It's the only thing I know
Just give me the sign
