

Carried Away

Icon for Hire

(I won't be carried away, I say, I say...)
Yeah!

This is as weak as they come, this is as far as I'll run
I'm growing ill with the cure, you're just as hungry for more

I've exhausted all my caution
Breaking down is not an option

Haven't you had enough? Aren't you tired?
Well, this is where I draw the line
Haven't you had your fill of the empty?
Aren't you ready to sing, "I won't be carried away"

Good grief and give it a rest, my struggle never relents
We'll never know what it costs, until we're too weak to stop

I've exhausted all my caution
Breaking down is not an option

Haven't you had enough? Aren't you tired?
Well, this is where I draw the line
Haven't you had your fill of the empty?
Aren't you ready to sing, "I won't be carried away"

(I won't be carried away I say, I say)

I won't be carried away!
Haven't you had enough? Aren't you tired?
Well, this is where I draw the line
Haven't you had your fill of the empty?
Aren't you ready to sing, "I won't be carried away" (Carried away!)
