

Other Half Of Me

Icon of Coil

Let me feel the strength that you felt
Still hunting in your eyes
Let me taste the life
That you have tasted

Let me feel the power of your supplies
Let me reach my goal
Give me the simmering in your eyes
I'm here to claim my soul

And the simmering in your eyes
The other half of me and all the pieces I left behind
You are my drugs
You are my demons

I am still alive
I always knew something were missing
Let me feel the pain that you've felt
I'm still counting the days

Still drifting
Searching for myself
For myself
