

Now We're Getting Warmer

Icons of Filth

Everything that is
Is only because its allowed to be Passiveness strengthens the status quo
Passiveness lets nothing grow
Everything is deteriorating
Time stands still for no-one
Yet everyone watches time
You may think you've got lots of it
But why limit mine?
Any little effort made that is contrary to today's warped apathy
Is another step toward sanity
Creating more love & space for each other
Can't be such a bad thing
Otherwise we'd crumble & tumble
Together, melting
