

If I Told You

Idina Menzel

If I told you that I lie sometimes,
If I told you that I'd run away,
If I told you who I was before,
Would you follow me?

If I told you that I sneak sometimes,
If I told you that I love too much,
If I showed you the other side,
Would you follow me?

Cause I'm shedding my skin
So you can see my face,
I need you to know who I am.
I'm ready to go where I've never been,
Will you stay around and follow me?

Yeah...
If I told you the earth was square,
If I told you water wasn't wet,
If I told you life was fair,
Would you follow me?

Ohhhh...
Cause I'm shedding my skin
So you can see my face,
I need you to know who I am.
I'm ready to go where I've never been,
Will you stay around and follow me?

To the furthest moon and back,
Jupiter and Mars and all that,
To the middle of a galaxy,
On the smallest raft...
I don't know if I can be sure
Of anything I believed before...
Will you follow me?

Cause I'm shedding my skin
So you can see my face,
I need you to know who I am.
I'm ready to go where I've never been,
Will you stay around and follow me?

To the moon and back,
Jupiter and Mars and all that...
