

Love Steals Us from Loneliness

Idlewild

woohoooOOOoohhoohhoh
woohoooOOOoohhoohhoh
woohoooOOOoohhoohhoh
woohoooOOOoohhoohhoh

Every step takes a beat of your heart through a city that's falling apart on a night that rises and clears in a sky that's clouded by years my anger is a form of madness and so I'd rather have hope than sadness

You said something you said something stupid like
happy birthday
are you lonely yet

I misplaced your face in the shape of a smile on a night that could never surprise me so don't tell me you're afraid of the past it's only the future that didn't last you're kidding yourself, kidding yourself you're going nowhere and you're going there fast

You said something
you said something stupid like
are you lonely yet

You said something
you said something stupid like love won't shield us from loneliness

woohoooOOOoohhoohhoh

woohoooOOOoohhoohhoh

woohoooOOOoohhoohhoh

woohoooOOOoohhoohhoh

You said something
you said something stupid like
are you lonely yet
are you lonely yet
are you lonely yet
are you lonely yet
