

Poor Thing

Idlewild

Give me the easiest thing I can do
Let me blank it from my mind
Tell me the easiest thing I can do
Let me blank it from my mind

The world seems so small
The sooner you realize it
As people we are so small
I know you've realized it

It might be a good thing if there were no heroes
I can't take heroes
It might be a good thing if we had no heroes
There are no heroes

Teach me the easiest thing I can do
Let me blank it from my mind
I'll gather up all my remaining education
And blank it from my mind

The world seems so small
The sooner you realize it
As people we are so small
I know you've realized it

It might be a good thing if there were no heroes
I can't take heroes
It might be a good thing if we have no heroes
There are no heroes

So why do you always hinder me?

Why do you always hinder me?
I'm lost, another mo' passed
There's no need to remind me
