

I'm Going Away Smiling

Iggy Pop

I'm going away smiling, thinking of our life How we were good f or each other, how we knew When I came to you, I was all black and blue You just smiled and said, your love was true We had a great time, didn't we? Never knew this is how it would be..

Now the boat is slowly leaving, leaving the life I loved I see you standing at the pier, trying to hide your fear Thank you fo r the memories, thank you for the laughs I'm going away, this t ime, Remember.. no tears
