

Rock and Roll Party

Iggy Pop

As I walked into the rock and roll club, I found myself with the usual bums. I know that blonde - she's smilin' at me, But the hands in my pocket is a mystery.

Oh-oh! What do I find? Rock and roll party, Where is the wine?
Oh-oh! Which one is mine? Rock and roll party, But where is the wine?

As I checked into that rocking scene, I was quickly surrounded by some beautiful queens. I looked to my left then I looked to my right, I spoke to that one girl that looked out of sight.

Oh-oh! What did I find? Rock and roll party, Such is the wine.
Oh-oh! What did I find? Rock and roll party, This one is mine.

OH!

Rock is rock if you'll give it a shot. Rock is rock if you like it or not. The nylon stockings up your leg, Might as well be screaming.

Where we gonna go tonight? Where we gonna go tonight? Where we gonna go tonight? Where we gonna go tonight? Where we gonna go tonight? Where we gonna go tonight?

Cause rock is rock if you'll give it a shot. Where we gonna go tonight? Rock is rock if you like it or not.

Rock and roll party.

Where we gonna go tonight? Where we gonna go tonight? Where we gonna go tonight? Where we gonna go tonight? Where we gonna go tonight? Where we gonna go tonight? Where we gonna go tonight? Where we gonna go tonight?
