

i wrap my hopes in you
i'm all in this my self this is a chance i have to take i'm all in this by my self it's a chance i have to take but this now time i have to break i can't last another round and this time you've knocked me... out

i wrap my world in you all you can think is yourself this is a time i have to leave i'm in this by my self

i build my hopes you bring me... down!
