

You're a paradise
And I've landed on the password
Am I paralyzed?
Cause I need you ever after
All the questioning
You are every single answer
I was shivering
You're the fireplace in winter
What I would not give to have
Here with me is all I ask

Be it as it may
You are every night
And every day
To me
Be it any way
You are everything
And anything
In me

You're my parachute
I can open when I'm falling
When I'm high on you
There could never be a warning
What I would not give to have
Here with me is all I ask

Be it as it may
You are every night
And every day
To me
Be it any way
You are everything
And anything
In me
Be it as it may
You are every night
And every day
To me
Be it any way
You are everything
And anything
In me

You're my victory
When I lost all hope for looking
I'm imagining
if it wasn't your loving
What I would not give to have
Here with me is all I ask

Be it as it may
You are every night
And every day

To me
Be it any way
You are everything
And anything
In me
Be it as it may
You are every night
And every day
To me
Be it any way
You are everything
And anything
In me

You're everything, you're everything to me...

You're my victory
When I lost all hope for
looking
I'm imagining
if it wasn't your loving
What I would not give to have
Here with me is all I ask

Be it as it may
You are every night
And every day
To me
Be it any way
You are everything
And anything
In me
