

Meant To Be

iiO

Maybe it's better that we're not together
Now that I've been thinking, I see what I was missing
The things I wanted from you were things that you could not do
You wouldn't change your ways, so now I gotta turn away

I'll turn around and walk away, I realize that I cannot stay
Don't ask my why or how it died, broken wings just cannot fly

Pray to God
Even wished upon a star
But it wasn't meant to be
And it isn't meant to be
Cried for days
Even begged for you to stay
No it isn't meant to be
It just isn't meant to be.

For me to forget you is really what I should do
Forgetting isn't easy, Your love will never leave me

Now all I want for it to be The way it was When I was free
You're in my mind all the time, Now all I know
You'll never be mine

Pray to God
Even wished upon a star
But it wasn't meant to be
It just isn't meant to be
Cried for days
Even begged for you to stay
But it wasn't meant to be
It just isn't meant to be.

Even though it's this way, there will be brighter days
I'll put another smile on my face and look back and be able to say
I'm glad I got to know you, You taught me something brand new Nothing lasts throughout time
But the sun is still gonna shine

Pray to God
Even wished upon a star
But it wasn't meant to be
And it isn't meant to be
Cried for days
Even begged for you to stay
No it isn't meant to be
It just isn't meant to be. (Never be mine)

Pray to God
Even wished upon a star
But it wasn't meant to be
It just isn't meant to be
Cried for days
(It just isn't meant to be)
No it isn't meant to be
(It just isn't meant to be)
