I receive higher heights When I shout out Rastafari Every where I go I tell it to the world to know I am Jah living watch man Giving account of every man action When mercy done or when judgement come When I shout out Rastafari Heavier gets my load Only they who know This glorious sounds love I so True words sound like thunder To them who don't love Rasta In his name brings forth lightening and showers Showers of rain even moving mountains I art Jah watch man giving account of every one I art Jah watch man

I hear weeping and wailling And I know what's going on I'll never be partial I'm gonna tell it all to Jah I am Jah living watch man Making notes in my high tower When questions ask I must give an even answer When I shout out Rastafari Heavier get my load Only they who know This glorious sound love I so True words sound like thunder To them who don't love Rasta In his name brings forth lightening and showers Showers of rain even moving mountains I am Jah watch man can count on I I am Jah watch man in a this now time Jah watch man
