

I'll meet you on the far side
Where the sun and moon entwine
And the clouds will roll though heaven
With you to ride my time

I'll give you all my loving
I'll give you all my heart
I wait in faith you'll come to me
One day I will depart

And if I put my trust in you
Will I lay my soul to rest
A nowhere man till then am I
In faith I face the test

A slave to all false prophets
And to dreams that never come true
I gave my life to the devil
Now I give it back to you

I'll give you all my loving
I'll give you all my heart
I wait in faith you'll come to me
One day I will depart

And if I put my trust in you
Will I lay my soul to rest
A nowhere man till then am I
In faith I face the test

And if I looked above me
Could I see the other side
I feel I'm in an ocean
Being dragged in by the tide

I thought I'd lost the demon
That I kept so deep inside
But now in his own weakness
In faith he will abide
