And when I try to keep This hate I feel so deep The question grows and grows When sadness overflows

And when I try to hide Your touch I can't deny Each time you ask me why I raise my head up high

Exposed to your decision
Withdrawn I turn to cry
I can't complete my vision
Forever afterlife

But now in my conclusion I fail in your illusion I walk towards transition Again I wonder why

Overcome I see the way Holding this moment When daylight never fades

Overcome with shades of grey Desire in motion The loss of yesterday

To all you expectations Indifferent I may be Does every situation Dissolve in front of me

To all your fates and fortunes Misguided you won't see If I could only torture This curse you've placed on me

Overcome I see the way Holding this moment When daylight never fades

Overcome with shades of grey Desire in motion The loss of yesterday

I wish that all will pass Nothing hangs over me I tried to make this last And keep my dignity

Replace all that we've lost Before you pay the cost I'm driven towards pain Back to the start again

Overcome I see the way

Holding this moment When daylight never fades

Overcome with shades of grey Desire in motion The loss of yesterday

Overcome I see the way (2) Overcome with shades of grey (2)
