

Voice Of The Sun

Ikon

Now the voice I shall be
The open doorway we shall see
Unlock the secrets of the past
Into the night the truth shall cast

Lost in me will I find myself
As I walk to the stairway
Trust in him as I talk
They never end what they start

Our only hope is to recall
The gods of life and death shall fall
Will we ever reach the end
And hold the message that they send

Lost in me will I find myself
As I walk to the stairway
Trust in him as I talk
They never end what they start

As I fear it all will come
We cannot hide we cannot run
