Wheels In Motion

Whenever I'm left out I'm thrown into dismay The things I've gone without Unfair it seems this way

At times I never start I drift and loose my way Forever in the dark And now there I must stay

Frail heart - A noose hangs over me
Frail heart - I crawl on Odin's tree
In searching for my own embrace
Sometimes my heart takes second place

It never crossed my mind But now is clear as day On eagles wings on path I'm closer every day

A glimpse of hope has past A cloud of dust has rained Again I'm in the dark And now there I must stay

Frail heart - A noose hangs over me
Frail heart - I crawl on Odin's tree
In searching for my own embrace
Sometimes my heart takes second place
